Taxation and Representation

It is exceeding curious to observe how the Confederates attempt to justify all they do by citing examples from the history of our revolutionary fathers. In the first place it was right to withdraw from the Union on the same principle under which the colonies cast off their allegiance to Great Britain. At the present time they cannot be taxed, for, forsooth, didn't the revolutionary fathers fight to establish the principle that there can be no taxation without representation? Thus do the Confederates discover one point after another of close resemblance between themselves and our patriotic ancestors. It is they tell us an indescribable hardship to be taxed to support the National Government and yet be denied representation. Confederates North and South are quoting from the Declaration of Independence, and pointing to the parallel between their case and that of the injured colonists. At present almost as great an uproar is kept up over this matter as prevailed a few years ago when the Southern States claimed the right to secede—basing their claims on the precedent which the Continentals had established. Most of us, however have hitherto been so obstinate as to deny that the case of the Confederates is just like that of the Continentals. There are some points of difference that we must stumble over. Our fathers were not rebels when they were denied representation by the British Government. They sought redress by petition, they remonstrated with the British Ministry, for long years they exercised forbearance, and took up arms only when every other resource had been exhausted. But with the rebel Confederates the case was altogether different. They had the same rights in the Government which other citizens possessed. But they engaged in a causeless rebellion and by this act forfeited all their political rights under the Constitution of the United States. They were not in the condition of a people who could not obtain redress for their wrongs in a peaceful way, for they had no wrongs to redress, but while yet in the full possession and enjoyment of all the rights which belonged to any class of our citizens they rebelled and sought a miserable excuse to justify themselves for their criminal misconduct. There is the greatest difference between an unprovoked attack on a Government to subvert it, and an appeal to arms to redress flagrant wrongs which by every other means had been proven altogether remediless, and this difference is just that which exists between the Continentals and the Confederates.

The rebel Government was in existence something over four years. During that time the people of the South paid the most enormous taxes, and thought it no hardship not to be represented in the Congress of the United States. But after having for years contumaciously refused to send members to the National Legislature, they now complain because Congress refuses to admit those who have been engaged in the rebellion, and assert that they must have representation immediately, or be exempted from taxation. It was easy to stay out of Congress for more than four years of their own rebellious will; but it is an intolerable grievance to be kept out for a day for the sake of the safety of the Government.

Loyal men in the revolted States have rights which ought to be protected. President Johnson, one year ago, said that these persons were thereafter to have the management and control of those States. To give power to those who were wantonly engaged in rebellion, would be a wrong upon such as remained loyal through the conflict in the very face of the unrelenting despotism which ruled the South during the long, dismal years of the rebellion.

The close of the rebellion left it discretionary with the Government to decide what punishment should be meted out to the guilty actors, and what restrictions should be placed upon them. The Government has a right to deal with them precisely as considerations of expediency may require. If those communities should be taxed for years without representation, there would be no valid cause for complaint, for the Government has acquired a right to do with them what may seem best. They can claim nothing as a right, it only remains for them to submit and abide the pleasure of lawful authority.

"GLORIOUS NEWS FROM CONNECTICUT."—Under the above stirring caption the Lafayette Courier has the following:

It is thought to be positively certain that the Democratic candidate for Governor of Connecticut will be elected by a round majority. The blacks have already given up all hope of electing their man. President Johnson has expressed himself favorable to the success of the Democrat. The postmaster and many other prominent Republicans of Hartford says the loyal telegraph, have come out boldly for the Democracy. The Post Master there to defeat his resignation which the President refused to accept presuming it would seem, to retain a good democrat in that important office. Had the President's policy been definitely developed prior to the late elections at the east every State that held an election would have gone democratic.

Is the Courier still "positively certain that the Democratic candidate for Governor of Connecticut will be elected by a round majority?" Have the blacks (Unionists) given up all hope of electing their man? Poor, simple minded, anticipative Democrats, expectant waiters for office, sorrowful sighers for political power will you never learn that your party cannot win in any loyal State? Even the patronage of Johnson, and the venality and defection of the Connecticut office holders could not give you a triumph. If the President shall hereafter in other States as he has already done in Connecticut, abandon the Union party and throw his influence in favor of the Democrats we shall be just as strong without his aid as with it. No President can break down the party that broke down the rebellion.

ORGANIZE.—Not long since, we adverted to the necessity for organizing the Union party of Oregon for a thorough and vigorous campaign. No time should be lost. ORGANIZE UNION CLUBS, where the issues of the campaign may be thoroughly discussed and everybody be made acquainted with the thousand and one hypocritical pretensions of the Democracy and their dark lantern tricks for entrapping the unwary. KEEP POSTED on their movements and expose without stint every deception they may attempt. Organize for the circulation of sound Union documents. APPOINT COUNTY COMMITTEES and precinct committees composed of your most wide awake men and then furnish them the means to pay for and circulate the documents. The contest is an important one—none has been more so since the Union party came together as with one patriotic impulse. Let genuine patriotism keep the party together and animate it to march on to another glorious victory.— BE VIGILANT to prevent Democratic frauds for by deceit and fraud only have our adversaries any hope of carrying the State. LET ACTION be the word from this day till the sun sets on the 4th of June. BRING OUT YOUR STUMP SPEAKERS in every county and neighborhood and get everybody out to hear them. If we will it in deep earnest we can whip the copperhead rebel crew by TWO THOUSAND MAJORITY.

The Triumph Complete.

As our dispatches inform us, the Civil Rights bill has passed the House of Representatives by the overwhelming vote of 135 to 18. So this righteous measure has become a law. Gladly do we chronicle it as victory for justice and for the rights of man. No person unblinded by partisan prejudice, will for a moment question the righteousness of this measure. To have defeated it would have insulted and offended the majesty of justice. No man, not even the President himself, can come before the people of the United States and successfully defend the policy which would have rejected an enactment which places all men on an equality before the law. The country moves on to the full consummation of freedom. It is in the power of no man or party to arrest its conquering march.

"Its course will on the way it takes,
Breaking ten thousand chains of stronger link
Than tyrants e're have forged."

We would have been glad had the President concurred with Congress in this most important measure. But since he opposed it, we are glad that it passed in spite of his opposition. The destinies of the country are still in the hands of the friends of freedom and the defenders of the rights of man.

MAKING A DESPERATE EFFORT.—By the telegraphic reports of the last two days, it will be seen our northern provincial neighbors are making a desperate effort to secure the travel to Big Bend by way of Victoria and Westminster. Sensational stories are made up from second, third and even fifth-hand reports from Big Bend, and then follow exaggerated statements about the ease and facility of reaching the new-found Eldorado. "When the road shall be completed," "when the ice gets out of the lakes," and when steamers shall be built to navigate said lakes, the trip is to be merely a "three or four days' pleasure trip." Meantime, hundreds of luckless miners are blocked up along the road, unable to get any further, because the road is not completed, the ice is not out of the lakes, and steamers are not built to navigate them. When a railway shall be built to the moon, a trip to that luminary will be a less formidable undertaking than now. Just so with the route by way of Westminster, Shuswap, etc., to Big Bend.

But, really, what are the stories so artfully woven in with the road and steamboat speculations, and which our British neighbors magnify into sensations! The first which we published yesterday, is simply that a "reliable" miner had arrived and told the story that another miner had struck diggings on Carn's Creek so rich as to "create excitement," and that he had exhibited, yes, verily, had actually exposed to the naked eye of excited beholders SIXTEEN OUNCES of gold dust! Think of that, ye phlegmatic Yankees! Sixteen ounces, all shown by one man! Remember, too, that as soon as a road is made, as soon as the arctic ice thaws out of Shuswap, and as soon as a steamboat is built on Shuswap Lake, you can reach the place where one man, all by himself, exhibited sixteen ounces of gold!

The second story, published this morning, is that Jim May—everybody knows Jim to be strictly reliable—has struck a rich claim on French Creek—a whole claim, mind you!—and as soon as the road is built, etc., as in the other story. It is very evident that the steamboat companies, the road companies and the hotel companies who may make money out of the road-bound miner, are the parties primarily interested in kicking up a Big Bend excitement via the road that is not built, the lake that is locked up with ice, and the steamer that may be built some time in the future.

Now, what is good sense about this matter of getting to Big Bend, even supposing those mines to be as rich as those of Oregon and Idaho, which, by the way is yet a question open to discussion? The Californian who started two weeks or even a month ago, from San Francisco, reached Portland in two days, went right on up the Columbia by steamers and railroad that are already built to White Bluffs, thence by land travel to Colville by a road already open, thence by steamer already making regular trips, to the head of navigation when he finds himself within twenty miles of Big Bend where one man has actually been known to exhibit SIXTEEN OUNCES of gold dust! and where he can excite himself as much as he may deem desirable. On the way, he found no ice-bound lakes nor no steamers yet in the uncertainty of future construction. He did not have to stop a day for the benefit of a road-side trader or landlord, nor for a July sun to thaw out his way before him, but went straight through to the land of "excitement" and ounces by sixteens.

A MISFORTUNE.—The Herald has a column about the public debt, the prodigality of the government, &c. From the style of the article, one would think the editor had fallen into a trance, and that while in this state he had witnessed all except the last scene of the vision which is described by Addison in the third paper of the Spectator. The unfortunate editor had seen the money bags shrinking and falling empty, as the elegant essayist describes, but he did not tarry long enough to see that sad scene vanish and another one appear, wherein Liberty and Religion and Good Government took the place of the sudden desolation, causing the money bags after a time to swell to their former bulk, and changing the heaps of paper into pyramids of guineas. How great a misfortune that the Herald editor could not have seen it all instead of having his eyes deprived of the brightest part of the scene!

The Confederate Democrat devotes half a column to the laudation of the Idaho delegate to Congress, saying in conclusion

Idaho has reason to be proud of her peerless young Delegate, who displays a maturity in practical statesmanship beyond his years

The person who would write in this way about the little nobody who nominally represents Idaho in Congress, "displays a maturity" in asininity far beyond his ears

VERY DEMOCRATIC.—The last issue of the Jacksonville Democrat contains nearly a dozen news items, from the OREGONIAN, with scarcely a change in phraseology and without credit. This kind of piracy is eminently Democratic, but not exactly courteous, to say the least. We have no objection, Jimmy, to editing your paper as well as our own, but it must be emphatically Union, Jimmy, or we demur.

The Civil Rights Bill in the House

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The House galleries were crowded to the fullest capacity to-day at quarter past one o'clock P M. The Civil Rights bill was taken up for action

WASHINGTON, April 9.—In the House during the morning hour Davis' resolution, offered January 15th, expressing confidence in the President, came up as unfinished business. Raymond, of New York, being entitled to the floor, then moved to postpone the further consideration of the resolution for two weeks. Agreed to. Boutwell under the call of States, offered resolutions to the effect that whereas Jeff Davis, C C Clay and others were charged, in the President's proclamation of May 3d 1865 upon evidence in the Bureau of military justice, with complicity in the murder of President Lincoln, therefore instructing the Judiciary Committee to inquire if there is probable cause for the charge, and further if there is any probability of their being tried, with power to send for persons and papers

The Civil Rights Bill a Law.

The Civil Rights bill and the veto message were taken up, and it was a quarter past two P M when the reading was completed. Wilson, of Iowa, after a few remarks, demanded the previous question. Eldridge, of Wisconsin moved a call of the House, which was declared not to be in order. LeBlond, of Ohio, moved to lay the bill on the table; negatived, ayes 30; noes 121. Eldridge and Finch made motions to adjourn, which were voted down. Eldridge then announced the secession of indignant members, saying they had left the House on sealing a determination to pass the bill over the veto by the operation of the gag rule. The previous question having been ordered, the vote was taken and resulted as follows: ayes, 135, noes, 18. The Speaker declared the bill had become a law, when tremendous and long continued applause broke forth, followed by hisses. Amid this excitement the House adjourned

Congressional—The Senate Passed the Loan Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The Senate passed the House Loan Bill without amendment, by 32 ayes to 7 noes, the latter being Messrs Chandler, Howard, Howe, Norton, Ramsey, Johnson and Wade. During the brief debate, Mr. Sherman said the bill conferred greater power than ever before given to any Secretary of the Treasury, and he did not see the necessity.

Mr Fessenden said the only objection he had to the bill was its weakness, and not its strength. It gave too little power. The only consequence attached to the bill was, it recognized the principle of the contraction of the federal debt.

Mr Sherman presented a bill to regulate the occupation of mineral lands and extend the right of pre-emption thereto. The first section recognizes and legalizes the exploration and occupation of mineral lands, subject to existing mining regulations, so that placer or gulch mining will, therefore, remain on their present footing, but in regard to quartz mining, the investment of capital and permanent structures, means is afforded to secure patents for claims actually occupied and improved, subject to payment into the national Treasury of five dollars per acre and five per cent. of the net proceeds of the yield. Great latitude is given the Secretary of the Interior in adjusting public surveys to such pre-emptions of mining claims, and various provisions are added to separate agricultural lands within mining districts, and open them to occupation under the pre-emption and homestead acts.

The bill was referred to the committee on mines and mining claims.

House adopted a resolution offered by Thad. Stevens requesting the Secretary of the Treasury to withhold from distribution the proceeds of naval prizes, until the question is settled by the Supreme Court whether, under the act of the 6th of July, 1861, the same having been the property of insurgents, does not belong to the United States.

Mr Raymond voted against the civil rights bill to-day. Mr Bingham, of Ohio, who voted against its original passage, was paired off. The only other members elected as Republicans who voted with the Democrats, against this bill, were Latham and Willey, of West Virginia, Phillips, of Md., Rousseau and Smith, of Kentucky, and Noell, of Missouri.

There was a murmur of applause when Davis and Hale, of New York, and Delano, of Ohio, conservatives, heretofore acting with Mr. Raymond, responded "aye."

Flowers contributed by colored women, were to-day placed on the desks of the 33 Senators who supported the civil rights bill, with a card attached, "We exercise the civil right to express our gratitude."

With its most emphatic typography the National Intelligencer solemnly warns the people that at a very early day the country will be startled with a sudden advance step in the progress of a revolutionary scheme unless the traitors be in the meantime discouraged by popular demonstrations of constitutional loyalty.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—In the House, the Speaker presented a message from the President transmitting a communication of the Secretary of War, relative to grants made to Mississippi, Alabama, Arkansas, Florida and Louisiana, in aid of the construction of railroads, which grants expire next August. The President recommends an extension of five years. The subject was referred to the committee on public lands.

Mr. Deming, from the military committee, reported a bill reviving the grade of General in the army.

Mr. Ancona, of Pennsylvania, from the military committee, reported a bill giving the court of claims jurisdiction in all cases of paymaster's commissions and other disbursing officers for relief on account of losses by capture or otherwise during the war.

The bankrupt bill came up to reconsider the vote by which it was rejected a week since, and the reconsideration was carried by ayes, 86, to noes, 65. The final vote on the passage of the bill resulted as follows—ayes, 70; noes, 75; so the bill was again rejected.

Union Successes in New Jersey.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The township election in Essex county yesterday, resulted in Union successes. The Democrats carried only three towns. The board of free holders, which last year was a tie, has ten Republican majority.

The Eight Hour Law Fails in Ohio.

CHICAGO, April 10.—The eight hour bill which was before the Ohio Legislature, failed to become a law, by the negligence of the House to concur in some few trifling amendments made by the Senate. The Legislature has now adjourned.

Rejoicings in New York—Jeff. Davis and Habeas Corpus.

NEW YORK, April 10.—A salute of 100 guns was fired at Union Square this morning, in honor of the passage of the civil rights bill.

Chief Justice Chase last evening in a speech at the Methodist meeting at St. Paul's church, alluded to the passage of the civil rights bill as a great triumph, and said the next step would be to give universal suffrage.

The Herald's Fortress Monroe special dispatch says: Rumors increase that Jeff Davis will be taken to Richmond on a writ of habeas corpus. His health is growing worse.

Miscellaneous Matters.

The Tribune signalizes its twenty-fifth anniversary by appearing in a new, enlarged form.

The Manhattan Club, will next week give James Brooks a public dinner. Late Senator Stockton and late Representative Voorhees are expected to be present.

The bonded warehouse on Greenwich street is reported to have been robbed of $10,000 worth of silver belonging to A Stewart.

The board of health is prosecuting vigorous measures against the cholera.

NEW YORK, April 10.—Dispatches from St Domingo of March 25, give the particulars of a great fire at Port-au-Prince on the 19th, which raged thirty hours and burned thirty-three blocks, embracing a thousand houses. There is great distress in consequence.

Prospects of an European War.

PORTLAND, Me., April 10.—The steamship Belgian from Liverpool the 29th via Londonderry the 3d, arrived at 9 A. M. The London Times says there is too much reason to fear that the peace of Europe is about to be broken by one of the least just and least necessary wars of modern days, and the Times hopes that England may hold aloof.

European News.

HALIFAX, April 9.—The steamer England from Liverpool, March 28th via Queenstown, March 29th, arrived here this morning with 1,200 passengers of whom forty had died of cholera. There were sixty cases on board. No communication with her has yet been allowed, but the agent of the Associated Press is endeavoring to obtain the news, which is four days later. She brings the following:

LONDON, March 29.—Consols, 86½@86⅝. 5 twenties, 71@71¼. The probability of war between Austria and Prussia was increasing. A crisis was imminent. The cattle plague in England was on the decline. The Berlin correspondent of the Times says: Prussia has not mobilized or sent to the frontier a single regiment. Some new regiments have been called in, but they did not come up to the number which in the most peaceful times have been collected on the appearance of some distant danger.

The Russian nobility assembly have carried, by a vote of 187 against 10, a petition from the present President of the Assembly praying the Emperor to know if the provincial parliaments might discuss political matters and address him. The proposition was negatived by the Czar some time since.

The clerk of the steamer England reports that on Tuesday occurred the first case of cholera. Sixty cases had broken out and fifty deaths occurred. She was ordered off by the Government, but owing to the rapid spread of the disease and the danger of the sick it was found impossible to proceed. She lies below the lighthouse. A number of the passengers will be landed on the hospital ship. There are three doctors on board. She has 1420 passengers and a crew of 100. The passengers are mostly Germans and Irish. The Captain thinks the disease was brought on board by the Germans.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

FROM THE NORTH

British Columbia News.

NEW WESTMINSTER, April 11.—From Mr. Thos Spence, just arrived from Cornwall's ranch on the wagon road we learn that Jim May an old and well known Cariboo miner had struck a very rich claim on French creek four or five miles farther up the stream than any prospecting had been done last fall. The lucky Jim immediately communicated with his old Cariboo chums, and a number, including Jim Sellers forthwith rushed off to join their former companion and share in his good luck. They have since recorded nine full claims and the interest excited among the miners is very great. Jim May is one of the pioneer prospectors of Cariboo, and he has traversed as much of that mountainous region in pursuit of gold as any man who has ever ventured into the upper country. He left Soda Creek about the first of November last year for the Big Bend and has wintered there.

The wagon road to the lakes has been completed and nearly all the men have been discharged. Wagons have passed over the new road already. The ice on the lakes has become too dangerous to cross over so that its immediate breaking up is looked for. Hundreds of men are camping at Kamloops waiting for the ice to break up to get into the mines. When the Marten is running and the Savannah road completed, a journey to the centre of the Big Bend diggings will be no more than a three or four days pleasure trip, while these same facilities will insure a plentiful and cheap supply of provisions.

State Items

A friend from Aquina Bay represents that settlement as filling up rapidly. Another town has been laid out, near the mouth of the river. The oyster trade is lively, there being parties there engaged regularly in the business. Outsiders get $1.50 per bushel, at which rate inexperienced fishermen often make six or seven dollars per day.

Orders have been issued to Capt. Copplinger, now at the Dalles, to move his command to Ft. Boise, and he will probably start next week. This movement looks like an abandonment of the fort at Dalles.

The rush for Blackfoot, Idaho and Eastern Oregon is beginning in good earnest, from the Willamette counties. Great numbers are daily arriving bound for those lands of promise.

The Canyon City stage, says the Mountaineer of yesterday, (Wednesday), is now over due for five days. It is feared that the Indians have either taken the affair in, driver and all, or have run off some of the stock, preventing the stage from getting the necessary relays.

A gentleman just arrived at the Dalles from Canyon City, informs the Mountaineer, that all of the streams on the road are exceedingly high for this season of the year. The last stage seen by the informant was the up-going stage, somewhere near Bridge Creek, and he thinks that high water is the cause of its non-arrival here.

Fay, the Democratic candidate for Congress, made a speech at the Dalles, on Tuesday evening. It is understood, says the Mountaineer, that the programme as agreed upon between the political aspirants is as follows: The two candidates for Congress commence at this end of the State, and speak at all the principal points, ending with appointments in Jackson and Josephine counties. The candidates for Governor will commence in Josephine and end in the eastern counties.

Ward's theatrical troupe have left the Dalles, purposing to go to Blackfoot via Boise and Idaho cities.

LECTURE.—The REV HORATIO STEBBINS, of San Francisco, will deliver a Lecture at the Methodist Church in this city on Friday evening, the 13th inst., for the benefit of the Portland Library Association.

Subject—"THE COUNTRY." Lecture to commence at half-seven o'clock.

Tickets, admitting a gentleman and lady, $1 00, to be had at the Book Stores and at Randall's Music Store.

FINE PICTURES.—ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL continue to take the lead in PHOTOGRAPHS, ALBUM and VISITING CARDS, AMBROTYPES, etc., at the CARDWELL GALLERY, 89 First Street, above Washington. The Celebrated Artist, MR. DESMOND, superintends the Operating Room. Persons may sit at any time from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M.

MEETING OF THE COMMON COUNCIL.—The regular weekly meeting of the Common Council was held last evening at 8 o'clock, Mayor Falling presiding.

The following members were present: Messrs. Gilmore, Lowenstein, McCraken, Plummer, Rosenheim, Strowbridge, Thompson and Watkins.

The records of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Licenses were granted to the following persons for the purpose of retailing liquors at various saloons of the city: Geo. Rober, P. Coakly, C. Bloom, Henry Phillippi & Clark, N. Nathan, Chas. Hanselton, Chas. Schuch, Eliza Williamson, John Collins, F. F. Schrader, Schuet & Schilt, J. Joachim, Hebschuch & Schmidt.

On ... ing of the petition of John Collins, Councilman Thompson appeared and took his seat. Not understanding the matter he asked for information, which being furnished.

Mr. Thompson said that there appeared to be but little investigation going on with regard to the matter, and he would inquire if any member knew the petitioner.

Mr. Rosenheim stated that the most of the petitioners were reputable German citizens, applying for licenses under the new order of things, to sell lager beer by the quart.

Mr. Plummer stated that his vote was influenced by his ... ying that the health and police committee to whom had been entrusted the supervision of these matters, moved the granting of the petitions—he had fallen in with them, but was not personally acquainted with the ...

Mr. Watkins said he was not acquainted with the petitioners, and as a member of the health and police committee he could say that he knew of no one of whom he could inquire regarding the standing of the applicants.

Mr. Gilmore hoped that if any member knew of an applicant for a license, who was not qualified to fill the place in the estimation of the Council that he would make it known. To refer all the petitions would bring upon the health and police committee greater burdens than they could bear, and to compel the committee to look into the ... for investigation was a useless movement, as the ... by existing laws, could not refuse to grant any person a license, provided there were no charges brought against that person to show that he was obnoxious.

Mr. Thompson used some further arguments to define his position, and urged that the Council should have a knowledge of the persons to whom they were granting licenses, and he was inclined to think that the present ... of the member, who had just preceded him, was ... by his former course regarding this subject. He ... a stand against disreputable places, but now he was ... every license petitioned for, unless some ... was obtained beforehand that the person was ... So far as I am concerned, continued the ... I want to know who the applicant is; whether ... or white, an American, Indian, negro or a ... Heretofore, we could not tell, and it was for the purpose of regulating the matter that action was taken a ... since. Application for a license is simply ... asking to grant it; is seconded, and it is put to vote ... test. I am not disposed to do so, and will not ... for my part, to know that the applicant will not ... disreputable house, and unless satisfied on that ... I vote against all applications.

Mr. Gilmore rose to reply to one or two remarks ... by the member regarding his (Gilmore's) ... course of action. On one occasion ... an ordinance relating to the subject ... —but it met with little favor, and was finally ... out, until it became necessary to withdraw ... was indefinitely postponed. If the Council will ... ordinance binding applicants for licenses to sell ... certain restrictions, I will vote for it. At this ... say the fault is not with the applicants, but ... with the Council. I hold that any man is qualified ... and I do not apprehend that the difference is great, whether the man be black or white, Indian ... Whisky sold by a nigger will kill as quick ... sold by a white man. The Council, under existing laws, ought not to refuse to grant a license to sell unless it was shown that the petition was obnoxious to the community.

Mr. Watkins said he was at a loss to know what qualifications were necessary for a saloon keeper, and he ... it would be a hard matter to find out. He was in favor of punishing the keepers of disreputable places, and revoking their licenses, but to prevent the issue of ... would like to check it by a legal process, hence ... a further increase in the price of licenses.

Mr. Thompson thought difficulty might be obviated in ... applicant would attach to his petition the name of ... sureties, and the Council might grant ... those recommended.

Mr. ... was acquainted with a number of applicants ... they were generally of a good character. He could not say as regarded the woman ... street however.

... to grant license in all cases prevailed, and they were ordered to issue to the parties mentioned.

... signed by Rev. P. S. Caffrey, Dr. R. Glisan, and ... others, relative to opening streets in Rawley's ... block west of Seventh street and north of Stark, ... streets and public property.

... against the proposed improvement by ... street, signed by the owners of 2... referred to the streets and public property ...

A report of Dr. J. L. Coombs relative to the sanitary ... of the city, was read and ordered on file.

A ... of T. C. Walters, relative to fire cisterns, and the city's obligations to him, was read and referred to the ... on accounts.

... on fire and water reported on the communication of the Chief Engineer relative to the cisterns ... street, at the crossing of Alder, Stark, and Oak streets, and the same were ordered to be repaired.

The committee on streets and public property reported ... the improvement of Salmon street to Park, but ... the improvement to the center of Fifth street from Front, and gave notice accordingly.

The report of the City Recorder, showing the receipt of ... in coin, from fines and costs for March, and the ... of the Marshal, $209 10, and fees of the Recorder, ... was placed on file.

W... were authorized in payment of claims against the city as follows: ... Simmons, sidewalks on ... street, $255; C. A. Stewart, do., $176; H. L. ... hauling, $22; H. L. Hoyt, fees as Marshal for March, $209 10; J. J. Hoffman, fees as Recorder for March, ...; P. Saunders and J. F. Ward, services as police for March, $100 each; H. L. Hoyt, board of city prisoners for March, $53.

The following Ordinances were read a first and second time:

... authorizing the committee on fire and water, with the Chief Engineer, to contract for the repair of ... on First street.

An Ordinance appropriating $350 for the purchase of four hydrants, and for erecting the same on First street at the corner of Oak, Morrison, Taylor and Madison streets, and for connecting the same with the street mains.

An Ordinance to prevent and punish trespassers on the public ... of the city of Portland.

An Ordinance to amend an Ordinance entitled an Ordinance defining the duties and fixing the salary of the Street Commissioner.

An Ordinance to provide for the purchase of the Mount Crawford ... tery, after being read a second time,

Mr. Thompson moved to strike out "$4,000," the price to be paid, and insert "$2,800," but the motion ... with a second, it was moved and seconded to lay the ... on the table. Some considerable debate followed, when the ... was put, and lost, by nays—6; ayes—2. Mr. ... then renewed his motion to ... the ... by inserting $7,300 instead of $4,000, which was ... ; ayes—2.

The City ... was instructed to report concerning ... of A street.

... A. ... 14TH INFANTRY BAND.—The 14th Infantry Band arrived from Vancouver last evening by the steamer ..., and gave a grand concert at Willamette ..., which was largely attended, as all their concerts ... the most select portion of our people. The programme, which was handsomely arranged, was gone ... with to the entire satisfaction of the audience. ... were from Rossini, Bellini, Faust—Gounod, ... Mozart, Mendelssohn, Labitzky, Verdi, Rousseau, ... Frice, and it is useless for us to say were rendered in the most perfect and effective manner. The ... of this band should be heard in a better place ... old and dingy Theatre. We hope that before they visit, Oro Fino Hall will be completed.

A ... BRICK.—We observed yesterday at the ... of British Columbia, a specimen gold brick, being ... the finest one we have ever seen. The brick was ... the crushings of the Rucket lodge. The gold of ... is ... to be 940 fine. There are 260.90 ounces in the brick, and the aggregate value is $5,100 22, or $19 50 per ounce. For the purpose of giving inexperienced persons an opportunity to judge of the size of a brick of that value, we took the dimensions which measure as ... length, 5½ inches; depth, 1¾ inches; width, ... The brick was assayed by King, Myrick & ... and is ... need the finest specimen yet produced from the results of a quartz crushing on the Pacific coast.

A WALLA STATEMENT.—The Walla Walla paper states that the price of freight per ton from Umatilla to White Bluffs is $30. This is far from being the truth. The price is but $7 50 more on a ton to White Bluffs from Portland, than it is to Wallula. The steamer that leaves Celilo on Saturday will carry about 80 tons of White Bluffs freight. The Portage Company lately organized for ... ing freight between White Bluffs and Pend d'Oreille Lake, have sent fifteen teams, of six and eight mules each, to begin operations with, and as soon as ... the number will be increased to fifty teams, and many more as the necessities of the case may demand.

... BY REV. MR. STEBBINS.—The Portland Library ... have secured the services of the Rev. Horatio ..., to deliver a lecture for the benefit of the Association. We are very glad that the arrangement has been made. Mr. Stebbins is a distinguished preacher, the ... of Star King, at San Francisco, and his lecture will, undoubtedly possess great interest. The object of the lecture also deserves the encouragement of our citizens. Let there be a full house. See notice in another column.

SHARP PRACTICE.—Oregon is being made the receptacle of the scum of the courts of California to a considerable extent, we know, but the first acknowledgment of the fact that has come under our observation, is the following from the Call: "Francis Lacour, who disregarded the ... prohibiting the carrying of concealed weapons, and thereby secured a night's experience in a dungeon and an introduction to Judge Rix, was permitted to go scot-free on condition that he depart hence to Oregon, and trouble California no more."

PICTURES AND THE PULPIT.—Judge H. P. Dandy delivered his lecture on the above subject at Forest Grove on Tuesday evening, before the Gamma Sigma Society of the Pacific University.

... ANNIV.—The Odd Fellows at various places, are ... preparations for a grand celebration of the 47th anniversary of the introduction of Odd-Fellowship in ..., on the 26th of April.

OYSTERS.—The Marysville Appeal advertises Oregon Oysters, served up in style at a restaurant in that city.

... The Portland Turn Verein give a soiree this evening at their hall on First street.

THE ISLANDS TRADE.—A NOVEL ICE HOUSE.—The Pacific Commercial Advertiser has the following: On discharging the cargo of the bark A. A. Eldridge from Portland the temperature of her hold was found to be unusually cold, and everything that came out of it appeared half frozen. On Tuesday the cause was discovered: for in breaking out the lumber, it was found actually frozen together, so that a crowbar was necessary to separate the planks, the ice around which was an inch or more thick. Several barrels-full of ice were secured by the staring natives, who enjoyed it with a little fresh cider—all direct from Oregon. It seems that the Eldridge loaded at Portland during a heavy snowstorm, and the planks were stowed away in her hold covered with snow and ice, which remained compact till brought out into sunlight on the wharf here. The apples, though over forty days on board, were discharged in fine order, and notwithstanding the liberal supply, were all taken with rapidity. The trade with Portland is a valuable one, and if there was some way to avoid the lengthy detentions almost always encountered in the Columbia river, waiting for cargo etc. it would be more profitable. The Eldridge was detained there some two weeks, and similar detentions are not unusual.

RECORDER'S COURT—J. J. HOFFMAN, J.—The business of the Recorder's Court yesterday was slim. A young man from Puget Sound, whose name is suppressed out of respect for his family, was committed to jail for two days upon conviction for riotous conduct at the Identical Saloon, when he was on a drunk the night before. A person boasting in the name of Rogus Ned whose pistol shot another fellow in the hand at the house of ill fame on Washington street, was fined $10 for carrying a concealed weapon. It was not proven that the shooting was done purposely.

FOR HONOLULU.—The bark A. A. Eldridge will leave for Honolulu on Friday next, from Oak Point.

Washington Territory Items.

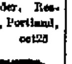

At the recent election for town officers of Olympia, G. A. Barnes, T. M. Reed, B. Harnard, A. J. Baldwin and Isaac Lightner, were elected Trustees. The Standard says two of them are "pillars," two "mudsills" and one "beam." What that means, we cannot say.

The Olympia papers are jubilating over the immediate prospect of telegraphic communication with Victoria, the cable having arrived and the gunboat Forward being nearly ready to take it on board for laying down. The Chronicle says: "The main and mizzen masts of the Forward will be removed, and the reel and paying out machinery rigged on deck. The first cable will be stretched from San Juan Island to Cadboro Bay, which on account of the strong currents will be the most difficult part of the work. The Forward will then ship a short line to be laid to Lopez Island, and when that is accomplished she will return for the last and longest piece of cable, to stretch from Lopez Island to the mainland."

The Standard calls attention to the law passed by the last Territorial Legislature, providing that none but those registered by sheriffs as having paid their poll taxes, shall vote at a regular election. Such registration must take place at least twenty days prior to an election, and the official list be exposed to public view, for the purposes of correction. The Territory is provided, at least, against the outrage of imported voters and emigrating road-agents.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, refreshes and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants. Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities, and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.
They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of impostors. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in Bulk, is an impostor. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

As a means of regenerating the disordered and ... system, regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution, and prolonging life, no medicinal preparation, either of the past or the present time, has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Against the vapors foul prepare,
That fever-taint the heavy air.
Drink not unmixed the water found
In prairies, woods or marshy ground.
If sedentary toil you ply,
Nature you must assist—or die—
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aid she cries.
Medicine's grand purpose and intent
Is threatened evil to prevent:
And if you'd be relieved or spared
From ills that crush (Ill unprepared),
Hostetter's Bitters use—for note
They are the SUREST ANTIDOTE.

To act as defiance the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded work-rooms and factories, and the baneful influence of sedentary employments, it is only necessary to be fore-armed with

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Dyspepsia's pangs, that rack and grind
The body, and depress the mind,
Agues, that as they go and come,
Make life a constant martyrdom;
Colics and dysenteric pains,
'Neath which the strong man's vigor wanes;
Bilious complaints, those tedious ills,
Ne'er conquered yet by drastic pills;
Dread diarrhoea that cannot be
Cured by destructive mercury;
Slow constitutional decay
That brings Death nearer, day by day;
Nervous prostration, mental gloom—
Heralds of madness or the tomb;
For these though mineral nostrums fail—
Means of Relief at least we hail,
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS—medicine sure,
Not to prevent, alone, but cure.

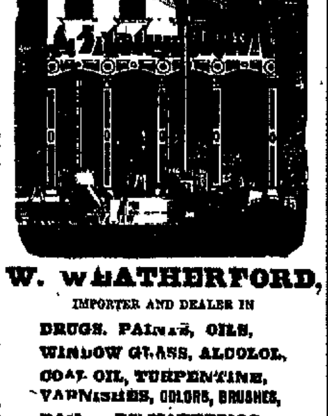

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious complaints, constitutional and nervous debility, constipation, sea-sickness, spasms, and in all complaints of Man or Woman, proceeding from casual or inherent weakness of the body, the one great remedy and restorative is

And tillers of wet, marshy ground;
To feeble wives of fragile mold,

To all the strengthless, weak and pale,
Who droop, yet know not what they ail,
Hostetter's Bitters we present
As Health's most potent element.

Abraham Lincoln

THE GREATNESS OF THE MAN

This is a time I say that human glory is but dust and ashes—that we mortals are no more than shadows in pursuit of shadows. How mean a thing were man if there were not that within him which is higher than himself; if he could not master the illusions of sense and discern the connections of events by a superior light which comes from God. He so shares the divine impulse, that he has power to subject interested passions to love of country and personal ambition to the ennoblement of man. Not in vain has Lincoln lived, for he has helped to make this republic an example of justice.

With no taint but the caste of humanity the heroes who led our armies into battle—Lyon, McPherson, Reynolds, Sedgwick, Wadsworth, Foote, with other conquerors and fell in the service did not die in vain. They and the myriads of nameless martyrs, and he the chief martyr, died willingly, that the government of the people by the people and for the people, shall not perish from the earth. He just died for the unjust. The assassination of Lincoln, who was so free from malice, has by some mysterious influence struck the country with solemn awe and hushed instead of excited the passions of revenge. It seems as if the just had died for the unjust; when I think of the friends I have lost in this war, and every one who hears me has, like myself, lost those whom he most loved. There is no consolation to be derived from victims on the scaffold or from anything but the established Union of the regenerated nation.

CHARACTER OF LINCOLN

In his character Lincoln was through and through an American. He was the first native of the region west of the Alleghanies to attain to the highest station, and how happy it is that the man who was brought forward as the natural outgrowth of the first fruits of that region, should have been of unblemished purity in private life, a good son, a kind husband, a most affectionate father, and as a man so gentle to all. As to his integrity Douglas, his rival, said of him, "Lincoln is the honestest man I ever knew." The habits of his mind were those of meditation and inward thought, rather than of action. He excelled in practical statement rather than executive ability. He reasoned clearly, his reflective judgment was good, and his purposes were fixed, but like the Hamlet of his only poet, his will was tardy in action, and for this reason, rather than from humility or tenderness of feeling, he sometimes deplored that the duty which devolved upon him had not fallen to the lot of another. He was skillful in analysis, discerned with precision the central idea on which a question turned, and knew how to disengage it and put it by itself in a few homely, strong, old English words, that would be intelligible to all. He delighted to express his opinions by an apothegm, illustrate by a parable, or drive them home by a story. Lincoln gained a name by discussing questions, which, of all others, most easily led to fanaticism, but he was never carried away by enthusiastic zeal, never indulged in extravagant language, never hurried to support extreme measures, never allowed himself to be controlled by sudden impulses.

During the progress of the election, at which he was chosen President, he expressed no opinion that went beyond the Jefferson proviso of 1784. Like Jefferson and Lafayette, he had faith in the intuitions of the people, and read those intuitions with rare sagacity. He knew how to bide his time, and was less apt to be in advance of public opinion than to lag behind. He never sought to electrify the public by taking an advanced position with a banner of opinion, but rather studied to move forward compactly, exposing no detachment in front or rear, so that the course of his administration might have been explained as the calculating policy of a shrewd and watchful politician, had there not been seen behind it a fixedness of principle, which from the first determined his purpose, and grew more intense with every year, consuming his life by its energy. Yet his sensibilities were not acute. He had no vividness of imagination to picture to his mind the horrors of the battlefield or the sufferings in hospitals. His conscience was more tender than his feelings. Lincoln was one of the most unassuming of men. In time of success he gave credit for it to those whom he employed, to the people, and to the providence of God. He did not know what ostentation was. When he became President he was rather saddened than elated, and his conduct and manners showed more than ever his belief that all men were born equal. He was no respecter of persons, and neither rank nor reputation, nor services overawed him. In judging of character, he failed in discrimination, and his appointments were sometimes bad, but he readily deferred to public opinion, and in appointing the head of the armies he followed the manifest preference of Congress. A good President will secure unity to his administration by his own supervision of the various departments. Lincoln, who accepted advice, was never governed by any member of his Cabinet, and could not be moved from a purpose deliberately formed; but his supervision of affairs was unsteady and incomplete, and, sometimes, by a sudden interference, transcending the usual forms, he rather confused than advanced the public business. If he ever failed in the scrupulous regard due to the relative rights of Congress, it was so evidently without design, that no conflict could ensue or evil precedent be established. The truth he would receive from any one; but, when impressed by others, he did not use their opinions till, by reflection, he had made them thoroughly his own.

It was the nature of Lincoln to forgive. When hostilities ceased, he, who had always sent forth the flag with every one of its stars in the field, was eager to receive back his returning countrymen, and meditated "some new announcement to the South." The amendment of the Constitution abolishing slavery had his most earnest and unwearied support. During the rage of war we get a glimpse into his soul from his private suggestion to Louisiana, that in defining the franchise some of the colored people might be let in, saying, "They would probably help in some trying time to come to keep the jewel of liberty in the family of freedom." In 1857 he avowed himself not in favor of what he improperly called negro citizenship, for the Constitution discriminated between citizens and electors. Three days before his death he declared his preference that "the elective franchise be now conferred on the very intelligent of the colored men and on them who served our cause as soldiers;" but he wished it done by the States themselves, and he never harbored the thought of exacting it from a new Government as a condition of its recognition.

The last day of his life beamed with sunshine, as he sent by the Speaker of this House his friendly greetings to the men on the Rocky Mountains and on the Pacific slope, as he contemplated the return of hundreds of thousands of soldiers to fruitful industry, as he welcomed in advance hundreds of thousands of emigrants from Europe, as his eye kindled with enthusiasm at the coming wealth of the nation; and so with these thoughts for his country, he was removed from the toils and temptations of this life, and was at peace.

As the sum of all, the hand of Lincoln raised the flag. The American people were the heroes of the war, and therefore the result is a new era of republicanism. The disturbance in the country grew not from anything republican, but out of slavery, which is a part of the system of hereditary wrong, and the expulsion of this domestic anomaly opens to the renovated nation a career of unthought of dignity and glory. Henceforth our country has a moral unity as a land of free labor. The party for slavery and the party against slavery are no more, and are merged in the party of Union and freedom. The States which would have left us are not brought back as conquered States, for then we should hold them only so long as that conquest could be maintained. They come to the rightful place under the Constitution, as original, necessary, and inseparable members of the States. We build monuments to the dead, but no monuments of victory. We respect the example of the Romans, who never even in conquered lands raised emblems of triumph, and our Generals are not to be classed in the herd of vulgar conquerors, but are of the school of Timoleon, and William of Orange, and Washington. They have used the sword only to give peace to their country and restore her to her place in the great assembly of nations. Our meeting closes in hope now that a people begins to live according to the laws of reason, and republicanism is intrenched on a continent. —Geo. Bancroft.

Kemp P. Battle, Public Treasurer of North Carolina, states the amount of the ante war debt of the State to be $9,719,503; the past due coupons and those which reach maturity during the present year, to be in round numbers $3,000,000. Total $1..719,500. The bonds issued during the war for internal improvements are $,619,000. The State has set offs against this debt in the shape of stocks and bonds of railroad and other incorporations, most of which are valuable, but not now productive, equal to $9,675,259. Mr Battle estimates the losses of the State in property, counting $200,000,000 for 331,000 slaves, at $250,000,000. The State also lost the labor of 100,000 men for four years or $80,000,000, and the death or disability of 60,000 soldiers caused a further loss of producing power of $60,000,000.

"MISPLACED CONFIDENCE."—Speaker Colfax was so confident that the President would sign the Freedmen's Bureau bill, that he wagered a box of cigars on it with a member of the House. On Tuesday morning the member found the box on his desk indorsed "From a victim of misplaced confidence."

AN AMENDMENT THAT IS WANTED.—The Portland correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin writes as follows about the enactment of necessary amendment to the Constitution of the United States:

The amendment that should be made to the National Constitution is one that would give the National Government that control over suffrage which naturally and properly belongs to it—the right of voting at Federal elections. Provide in the Constitution that Congress shall have the power to prescribe a uniform rule of qualification for voting at elections for members of Congress and Presidential electors. These are elections for Federal officers, and it is a solecism and contradiction of our whole system that the National Government should not have the power to prescribe the qualifications of voters at such elections and that such power should be exercised for it by thirty or more separate States in as many different ways. A member of Congress from Oregon elected by white voters, another from Massachusetts or New York elected by black voters, another from New Hampshire elected by citizens of the United States and yet another from Wisconsin elected by unnaturalized foreigners. Each of these members helps to make laws for the whole people of the United States, and the people of each State are bound by the laws of members thus elected from the other States. Let the States, then, regulate the right of suffrage for themselves, so far as the State elections and governments are concerned. If they are to be State governments for any purpose this power is properly and rightfully theirs. On the other hand, let the National Government regulate the right of suffrage for itself, so far as Federal elections are concerned. Upon every theory of correct government, this power should be conceded to it. The question of negro suffrage or any other kind of suffrage, in the States and for State purposes, will remain with the States, untrammeled and uninfluenced by representation in Congress, or any relation with the Federal Government, while on the other hand, the question of suffrage, so far as the National Government is concerned, will be regulated by the whole people, and for the whole people, by a uniform rule throughout the United States.

TRACES OF THE "NEW NATIONAL PARTY."—In February last the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette wrote:

When those Kentucky resolutions (referring to a series of half Union half rebel resolutions which had passed the Kentucky Legislature) were adopted, "by nearly every Union member," the new party conspiracy was just ready to be sprung upon the country. The last resolution contains this clause: "The causes which have heretofore divided the loyal people of Kentucky have been removed by the adoption of the constitutional amendment." At the St. Louis meeting the same sentiment was put forth. The telegram of the President contained the same clause. Mr Raymond, in echo, said it was so. The meeting for the 22d of this month in Nashville is based on the same idea. That part of the Kentucky delegation elected as Union men, and who have since left the party, may have adopted this central thought of the new party for their guide.

When the session began it was announced all over the country that the Union party made up of two factions, and that these would inevitably separate. To give this report the widest possible circulation was only one of the steps in the scheme which has been frustrated.

The country should understand—it is learning through every test vote—that there is no division of the Union party. Some are more radical than others, but all are working harmoniously together, and day by day becoming stronger.

The little caucus of fifteen Union men who began to move here, suddenly dissolved partnership when the vote on the District suffrage bill was taken, and it is as hard to find one of them now as it was a few years ago in Cincinnati to discover a man who had been to the buffalo hunt, where, it will be recollected, the buffalo did not perform to the entire satisfaction of the large number of spectators present, but, being a little tired, laid down in the mud.

CHINESE WIDOWS.—Widows are obliged, by custom, to wear a white, black or blue skirt, when they wear any skirt at all. They are not allowed to dress in a red and gaudy skirt, as though they were married and their husbands were living. Hence the expression, "marrying the wearer of a white skirt," applies to a man who marries a widow. Poor families sometimes arrange to marry one of their sons to a widow, when they feel themselves unable to procure a girl of good character, on account of the necessary expense incurred in such a case. The expense attendant on marrying a widow is comparatively small. It is considered a disgrace to a family for one of its own sons to marry a widow, no matter how intelligent, interesting, and handsome she may be, as well as a disgraceful or shameful step on the part of the widow to consent to marry again. No rich and fashionable family ever marries a son to a widow. A widow is not allowed to ride in a red bridal chair en route from her residence to the residence of her intended husband. She must employ a common black-covered chair, borne by two men. Many families, which have a widow connected with them, are exceedingly unwilling that she should marry again, on account of the dishonor which such a procedure would bring upon them, and especially upon the memory of her deceased husband. Generally his relatives, if in good circumstances, prefer to assist in her support, or support her entirely, than that she should marry the second time.

FLIP-FLOP.—The editor of the Walla Walla Statesman is the original Flip-flop. Though of vast proportions he is a most expert turner of somersaults. If there is any political issue of which he has not been on all sides, it is because of his stupidly failing to see any remaining side to get "onto." From radical Unionism to radical rebellism, he has not missed an ism that we know of. He is now a conservative Democrat, with a decided tendency to the Jo. Teal style of rebellism. After his favorite O'Fay-O'Meara ticket shall have been laid in the cold embrace of political death next June, he will flip-flop over and out-Sumner Sumner in fantastic radical vagaries.

The President has again promptly come to the rescue of the Constitution and the country by affixing the executive condemnation to another infamous and diabolical law passed by that nest of fiends and traitors—the Senate and Congress of the United States.—Courier.

Congress "has again promptly come to the rescue" of the rights of man by passing a good and just law over the President's veto. Copperheads and secessionists, including the Courier man, have changed their shouts of exultation to notes of so harmonious woe. Very "dead ducks" are their hopes of preventing the full consummation of human liberty.

Jeremy O'Diddler is running for Public Printer. A few years since, he ran from a private printer. His former race was a much faster one than he will make this year. Though wounded, he then escaped with his physical carcass. The end of the present race will be a political death as ignominious as his past five year's record.

LAND'S END.—This remarkable formation is the most extreme western point of Great Britain. It is situated at the western extremity of Cornwall, England, and is formed of granite cliffs, whose summits are sixty feet above the level of the sea. One mile distant from it are the dangerous rocks called the Longships, on which has been erected a lighthouse, with fixed lights 88 feet above the water.

AN INDORSEMENT.—We have heard of two Democrats (only two) who indorse the Democratic ticket. One of them was arrested last spring for rejoicing over the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, and the other is O'Meara's old "Sixty Fiver," a new recruit from Missouri and who had two sons in Price's army. Old Jo Lane, who had one son in the rebel army and has one on this ticket, will also endorse it.—Statesman.

An exchange says: "It is better to love a person you cannot marry than to marry a person you cannot love." This is a short text for a long sermon, which human experience will continue to preach until the last syllable of recorded time and human passions.

The last sale of negroes in the Valley of Virginia was made by a gentleman of Staunton, April 9th 1865. He sold two negro children, aged nine and twelve years, for five thousand cabbage plants.

A judge threatened a lawyer for contempt of court. "I have expressed no contempt for the court," said the lawyer, "on the contrary, I have carefully concealed my feelings."

A Collector of the Internal Revenue tax lately found a man so dirty in appearance, out West, that he put him down on the tax roll as real estate.

SHEEP RAISING.—The number of sheep in Tulare county, California, is estimated at $1,0,000.

OUR RELATIONS WITH ENGLAND.—Sir Frederick Bruce, who now represents Queen Victoria here, is a courteous, hospitable, old English gentleman, whose charming niece, Lady Emma Thurlow gracefully presides at famous dinners to which Congressmen and other notables are invited without stint. But we are, nevertheless rapidly drifting diplomatically into what Talleyrand called "un commencement de la fin," or an intercourse of insults, and Bruce's semi-official arrangement of England in his eulogy upon Lincoln but expresses in plain language Seward's more studied phrases. For example, when our Secretary of State acknowledged the turning over to us of the Shenandoah, he said: "We accept the vessel, but I regret to say that the acceptance is not attended with any satisfaction on the part of the Government." Then, after adverting to the facts of the case, Seward went on to draw, on behalf of the United States, the painful inference that her Majesty's Government have assumed to hold guiltless of all crime subjects of her Majesty who have in time of profound peace waged naval war upon the high seas against unarmed citizens of the United States engaged in lawful commerce and navigation.

This hard rap over the knuckles was read to Lord Clarendon late in December by Adams, to whom Seward had sent it to be communicated to the British Government, and his Lordship was only pleased to remark that nothing but a desire to preserve friendly relations with the United States prevented his replying in forcible language. Last week Sir Fredrick Bruce read a dispatch from her Majesty's government, the upshot of which was that, replying to Seward, the Government think that he has made a grave accusation they founded and extreme to their dignity. Meanwhile have been proved conclusive proof that nine Seward has original crew of the Shenandoah were found subjects recruited in England and that British, and more British subjects were shipped to Melbourne, with the full connivance of the Australian authorities. This pseudo neutrality of John Bull may yet cause him a deal of trouble.—Washington Cor. Sac. Union.

ADVICES FROM MAZATLAN.—A correspondent of the Sacramento Union, writing from Mazatlan, March 10th, says:

After a several weeks prospecting tour through mining districts of this State, I find myself again in the city of Mazatlan, and, as usual, found in the office files of your paper, I have but very little of interest to communicate outside of politics of the country, and for one like myself, who to-day is in the republic and to-morrow in the empire, is better off not to mention politics at all.

As for business, there is none, everything in the way of business is at a dead lock and will remain so until one party or the other gets full possession of the country. The cotton crop is very near a failure throughout the State—there will not be more than a quarter of a crop raised on an average.

The suspension of all kinds of business has resulted in one great good, proving that good can come out of evil. Men having nothing to do have stopped to think, and in so doing, have discovered that this country contains an immense wealth in the way of copper mines that heretofore have been overlooked in the eagerness to possess gold and silver mines. Copper lodes exist in this State far richer than one can imagine. I will not at present attempt to give you the description of the various copper lodes that I have examined, but I will in time. Copper is the principal wealth of this country, but the Americans mining here have not yet discovered that fact; but the day is near at hand when all will. Some have taken steps to open them up. A large petroleum spring has been discovered not far from this place that may prove of great value.

THE FRENCH IN MEXICO.—Representative Brandagee, a plucky little Connecticutter, has troubled the Turveydrops of the State Department by the introduction of a preamble into the House, setting forth the declaration of Napoleon on the withdrawal of his troops from Mexico, and concluding with a resolution that, in the judgment of Congress, the employment of French soldiers in Mexico for further conquest would be a violation of plighted faith. The debates in the French Senate show that the Parisian Sphynx has not intended to withdraw his forces, and the remarks of M. Rouher, the Emperor's Prime Minister, virtually admitting that if the French troops are recalled the Juarist Republicans will regain possession of Mexico, have inspired M. de Romero and the other Mexican Liberals here with fresh courage. Maximilian has invited the Chevalier Wycoff to Mexico, with other wire-pullers of opinion, and his agents promise all sorts of "concession" to those who will advocate a recognition of the Franco-Austrian Empire, but it is evident that the Mexican people desire a republic, nor is it unreasonable to suppose that they may soon be aided in expelling their present oppressors.

JOKE ON RAYMOND.—A joke is going round certain circles at the expense of Henry J. Raymond, which is too good to be kept private. Report has it that Ganson, an ex-member of Congress from the Buffalo district, the other day introduced Raymond to ex-Governor Parker, of New Jersey, who is, as everybody knows, a pro-slavery Democrat. "Ah," says Judge Parker, "I'm very glad to make Raymond's acquaintance. I take the Times because I like to see both sides." "Yes," says Ganson, "and you get both sides in the Times."

ARIZONA SALT.—A gentleman residing in Arizona sends us a specimen of rock salt taken from a mine at Virgin river, about twenty miles from a point of navigation. He informs us that it was taken from a ledge or mountain of pure salt 100 feet high. It is remarkably pure and almost as clear as crystal.—S. F. Bulletin.

Charles J. Faulkner, whose rebellious antecedents are well known, recently asserted the right to practice as a lawyer in West Virginia, without taking the test oath. The Supreme Court of the State, however, decided adversely to his claims.

U. S. Marshal's Notice.

WHEREAS, an information has been filed in the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon, on the 4th day of April, A D 1866, by J N Dolph, Esq, District Attorney on behalf of the United States against "Twenty-two Boxes of Cigars," alleging in substance that on or about the 10th day of February, A D 1866, in the City of Portland in said District, the Cigars aforesaid were sold and passed out of the hands of the manufacturer without having stamps denoting the tax thereon so affixed that the boxes could not be opened without effacing or destroying the said stamps, against the form of the statute in such cases made and provided, and praying process against said Cigars, that the same may be declared forfeited, and that notice be given to all persons claiming the same to appear and show cause on the return day of said process why such forfeiture should not be decreed:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the warrant, under the seal of said Court to me directed and delivered, I hereby give public notice to all persons claiming the said Twenty two boxes of Cigars, or in any way interested therein, that they be and appear before the said District Court, to be held in the City of Portland, in said District, on Monday, the 7th day of May, A D 1866, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, then and there to interpose their claims and make their allegations in that behalf.

WATER WHEELS.
POWER PLEDGED EQUAL TO THE
Best Overshot Wheel in Existence.

LEFFEL'S
American Double Turbine Water Wheel
IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works, in the city of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a small supply of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 48 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper sized wheel you require, measure your water in the following way: Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.
All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance, commend it to the better judgment of all minds capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition.
This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 300 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power, under a head of 25 or 30 feet. They are the cheapest wheel to set up known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used.
The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in Coin, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see how much it costs to have such tenants in such costly buildings as the one referred to above.

ALLEN'S
LUNG BALSAM!
The Remedy for Curing
CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,
Asthma, Croup,
Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing, and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC and DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS and PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION! IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies), or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. It is WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.
